

Quick view programme

Wednesday 24 th September.
1.00pm	Registration & coffee
2.00pm	Welcome Dr Stuart Eglin Director NHS R&D North West
	Plenary: “Let’s talk patients and the public in research’ Simon Denegri NIHR National Director Public Participation & Engagement in Research. Chair, INVOLVE
Location			Platinum Suite	Chairman’s Suite
2.45pm	Creative approaches to communicating research (1)	Developing Cultures of Research & Innovation Paper presentations (2)	Plugging into the Power in our Pockets. Making the most of mobile and social media (3)	NIHR research funding, the Research Design Service and you (4)
3.45pm	Refreshments & poster viewing
4.00pm	Reaching out to communities, promoting equal access to opportunities for public involvement in research (5)	Primary Research Papers (6)	Plugging into the Power in our Pockets. Making the most of mobile and social media (7)	Primary Research Papers (8)
5.00pm	Close
Thursday 25 th September
8.30am	Registration & coffee
9.15am	Plenary: Addressing health inequality: A research priority for the North West Prof. Margaret Whitehead W.H. Duncan Chair of Public Health at Liverpool & Head of WHO Collaboration Centre for Policy Research on the Social Determinants of Health
Location			Platinum Suite	Chairman’s Suite
10.00am	NIHR Administered Personal Research Training Award (9)	Developing Cultures of Research & Innovation Paper presentations (10)	Engaging with the work of GM & NWC CLAHRCs (11)	How are AHSNs good for business, academics & the NHS? (12)
11.00am	Refreshments and poster viewing
11.30am	Putting the ‘net’ in research networks (13)	Primary research papers (14)	Health Research: promote it, use it, do it (15)	Making innovation everyone’s business (16)
12.30pm	Lunch and poster viewing
1.30pm	Plenary: “Creating a research active workforce: a national perspective” Prof. Ged Byrne Director of Education & quality, Health Education North West
Location			Platinum Suite	Chairman’s Suite
2.30pm	Influencing without authority (17)	Developing Cultures of Research & Innovation Paper presentations (18)	Introduction to Evidence Synthesis (19)	Primary research papers (20)
3.30pm	Refreshments
3.45pm	Plenary: “Why engagement matters a view from the Wellcome Trust” Clare Matterson, Director of Medical Humanities & Public Engagement Wellcome Trust
4.30pm	Close of Conference			